to be reliable and competent in the matters presented; (b) Legal counsel, public accountants, engineers, or other persons as to matters the director or officer reasonably believes are within the person's professional or expert competence; (c) A committee of the board of which he or she is not a member if the director or officer reasonably believes that the committee merits confidence. However, an officer is not entitled to rely on the information if he or she has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance unwarranted.

Article VI – Committees and Task Forces

Section 6.01 -- Committees

(A) Establishment

The Board shall establish two ~~executive standing~~ committees:

a. ~~Nominating and Leadership Development~~ Committee, chaired by the Vice-~~Chair~~President

b. Audit Committee, chaired by ~~an appointee by the Chair of the Board~~the Treasurer.

The Board may establish other ~~executive or nonexecutive~~ committees as needed. Nonexecutive committees may include individuals who are not directors, officers, or members of the corporation. A nonexecutive committee formed by the Board must be formed by resolution of the Board which states the purposes of the committee, the terms and qualifications of committee members, and the ways in which members of the committees are selected and removed. All executive and nonexecutive committee members serve at the pleasure of the Board.

(B) Appointments

(i) The ~~President~~Chair of the Board shall appoint the chair of each committee to a term of one year, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors.

(ii) The ~~President~~Chair of the Board shall appoint members of committees. Committee chairs and members may be drawn from Board members, Member Representatives, Alternates, or the staff of member or non-member institutions.

(C) Vacancies

The ~~President~~Chair of the Board shall fill committee vacancies occurring within a term by appointing an interim member to serve the remainder of the unexpired term.

(D) Records

Each committee shall provide to the Board a written copy of information and analysis that is brought to the Board of Directors.

Section 6.02 -- Task Forces

(A) Establishment

Task Forces shall be established as needed by the ~~President~~Chair of the Board.

(B) Appointments

The ~~President~~Chair of the Board shall appoint chairs and members and fill vacancies that may occur. Task force chairs and members may be drawn from Board members, Member Representatives, Alternates, or the staff of member institutions.

(C) Reports

Each task force shall provide to the Board a written copy of information and analysis that is brought to the Board of Directors.

Article VII -- Meetings

Section 7.01 -- Annual Meeting

An annual meeting of the membership shall be held in the fall of each year on such a day and at such a time and place as shall be designated by the Board of Directors. Notice shall be provided to Members as provided in Section 4.09.

Section 7.02 -- Special Meetings

Special meetings of the membership may be called at any time by the ~~President~~Chair of the Board, the Board of Directors, or by petition of at least 30% of the membership. Notice shall be provided to Members as provided in Section 4.09.

Section 7.03 -- Notice of Meetings

Member representatives or directors shall be notified at least fourteen (14) days prior to membership meetings by a method to be determined by the Board of Directors and as provided in Section 4.09. Attendance of a person at a meeting constitutes a waiver of objection to lack of notice or defective notice of the meeting, unless the member at the beginning of the meeting objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting because the notice was deficient. Only items on the agenda will be heard at each meeting. The Agenda shall be sent to the members with notice of the meeting. If any member proposes to add an item to the agenda, the member must notify the Secretary at least 7 days prior to the meeting. The Board will take all proposals for the agenda under consideration, and items will be added to the agenda within the Board's discretion. Except, if at least 10 percent of the voting membership proposes to add the same item to the agenda, the Board must add it to the agenda.

Section 7.04 -- Consent and Voting

- (A) Any action that could be taken at a meeting of the membership may also be authorized by a vote by mail or by electronic communication to the fullest extent permitted by law. Such a vote by mail or by electronic communication must be:
- (i) Ordered by the Board of Directors; and
  - (ii) Conducted in accordance with procedures established by the Board of Directors, these Bylaws, and applicable law.
- ~~(B)~~ (B) — Any action the members are required or permitted to take at an annual or special meeting, including the election of directors, may be taken without a meeting if the corporation provides a ballot (electronic or otherwise) to each member that is entitled to vote on the action no less than 20 and no more than 60 days before the vote must take place. The ballot provided to shareholders or members must (i) set forth each proposed action to be voted on, (ii) provide an opportunity for the members to vote for or against each proposed action, and (iii) specify a time by which the corporation must receive a ballot in order to be counted as a vote of the member. An action is considered approved by the members if the total number of members voting or the total number of member votes cast and received by the corporation by the time specified equals or exceeds the quorum required to be present at a meeting to take the action, and the number of favorable votes equals or exceeds the number of votes that would be required to approve the action at a meeting at which the number of votes cast by members present was the same as the number of votes cast by ballot. An invalid ballot, an abstention, or the submission of a ballot marked "abstain" with respect to any action does not constitute a vote cast on that action. A member may not revoke a ballot once received by the corporation.

(C) For a vote by mail or by electronic communication, an affirmative vote of the majority of the voting membership is required for the adoption of the proposal.

~~(B)~~(D) Proxy voting for any vote of the corporation is not permitted.

Section 7.05 -- Quorum

(A) At any annual or special meeting of the membership, the presence of 10% of the total membership shall be necessary and sufficient to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

(B) A member shall be considered present and may participate in a meeting by a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by which all persons participating in the meeting may hear each other if all participants are advised of the communications equipment and the names of all participants in the conference are divulged to all participants.

~~(B)~~(C) The Secretary shall before each meeting make and certify a complete list of all members entitled to vote at a meeting. This list shall be arranged alphabetically and include the address of each member. The Secretary shall produce this list to the Board at the time of the meeting. The list is open to examination by any member during the meeting.

Section 7.06 -- Rule of majority

(A) At every duly called and noticed meeting in which a quorum is present, an affirmative vote of the majority of members present and voting, ignoring blanks, is necessary for the adoption of any motion or the taking of any action, except as otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, these bylaws, or law. For any votes by electronic ballot, the action is approved or authorized if it receives the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by the members and received by the corporation.

(B) Each Member, through its Representative, shall be entitled to one vote.

Section 7.07 -- Parliamentary authority

(A) The rules contained in the current Robert's Rule of Order Newly Revised shall govern in all cases to which they are applicable and consistent with these Bylaws, MCLS's Articles of Incorporation, or any special rules of order the Board may adopt.

(B) The President ~~Chair of the Board~~ may appoint a parliamentarian for every duly called and noticed meeting of the membership.

Article VIII -- Executive Director

Section 8.01 -- Duties:

The Board of Directors shall see to it that the Executive Director's duties and responsibilities are established and defined in the Ends Policies and Executive Limitations Policies and that they are recorded in the Board Policy Manual.

Section 8.02 -- Appointment

- (A) The Executive Director shall be selected, appointed and evaluated by the Board of Directors.
- (B) The Executive Director's appointment may be terminated by the Board of Directors subject to the contract between the Executive Director and the Board.
- (C) An Acting Director may be designated by the Board of Directors until an Executive Director is appointed.

Section 8.03 -- Terms of Employment

The Executive Director's terms of employment shall be established at the time of appointment by the Board of Directors.

Article IX -- Contracts and Transactions

Section 9.01 -- Indebtedness

The Board of Directors shall see to it that Policies governing indebtedness, loans, and guarantees are established and defined in the Executive Limitations Policies and that they are recorded in the Board Policy Manual.

Section 9.02 -- Real estate

The purchase or sale of real estate shall require the approval of the membership as provided in Article VII Sections 7.05 and 7.06.

Section 9.03 -- Legal Signatories

All properly authorized deeds, mortgages, contracts, notes, drafts, acceptances, checks, endorsements, guarantees, and all evidences of indebtedness of MCLS whatsoever shall be executed in accordance with procedures established by the Board of Directors.

Section 9.04 -- Liquidation of assets

- (A) Only the Members may:
  - (i) Liquidate, dissolve, sell all or substantially all of MCLS's assets;
  - (ii) Merge or consolidate MCLS with another organization.
- (B) In the event of the liquidation or dissolution of the corporation, all assets, real and personal, shall be distributed to such organization(s) as are qualified as tax exempt under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding provisions of a future United States Internal Revenue law.

Article X -- General Provisions

Section 10.01 -- Registered office

MCLS shall maintain offices -as specified by the Board of Directors.

Section 10.02 -- Financial Statements

The Board of Directors shall employ a certified public accountant to perform an annual audit of the financial statements of MCLS and shall make available such audited financial statements, together with the accountant's opinions and recommendations, to the membership.

Section 10.03 -- Fiscal Year

The fiscal year of MCLS shall begin on July 1 and end on June 30 of each year.

Section 10.04 -- Records

–The Board shall establish a permanent record of its proceedings and official documents. This shall include books and records of account and minutes of the proceedings of its members, board, and committees and all documents related to any official Board action. This does not include any employment or personnel records, as such records are not open to inspection by the general membership to protect employee privacy. MCLS shall keep at its registered office records containing the names and addresses of all members and the dates when each member joined MCLS. These documents may be in written form or in any other form capable of being converted to written form within a reasonable time.

If requested in writing (or the electronic equivalent) by a member, a corporation shall mail to the member its balance sheet as at the end of the preceding fiscal year; its statement of income for that fiscal year; and, if prepared by the corporation in its normal business, its statement of source and application of funds for that fiscal year. MCLS may charge a reasonable fee for preparing the records and copying the records to the member requesting the information. If a member needs monthly financial statements, there will be an additional charge for compiling such information.

Any member may during regular business hours inspect for any proper purpose the corporation's list of members, and its other official books and records, if the member gives the corporation written demand (or the electronic equivalent) describing with reasonable particularity the purpose of the inspection and the records the member desires to inspect, and the records sought are directly connected with the purpose. Proper purpose means a purpose that is reasonably related to a person's interest as a member. If an attorney or other agent is the person seeking to inspect the records, the demand must include a power of attorney or other writing that authorizes the attorney or other agent to act on behalf of the member. MCLS shall respond to any such request within 5 days of receiving the request. MCLS reserves the right to impose reasonable limitations on Member inspections of records.

Section 10.05 -- Indemnification

MCLS shall maintain Directors' and Officers' insurance in an amount and kind determined by the Board.
MCLS shall indemnify its directors and officers for damages and costs of defense only to the extent and consistent with what the corporation is insured for under its applicable policy of insurance. No indemnification shall be available beyond that provided by the policy of insurance in effect at the time of the incident.

Article XI -- Amendment of Bylaws

Section 11.01 – Amendments

- (A) These bylaws may be amended or revised by electronic ballot or at any regular or properly called membership meeting at which a quorum is present, as provided in Article VII Section 7.05.
- (B) An affirmative vote of a majority two-thirds of the membership present and voting, excluding blanks or abstentions, is required.
- (C) Notice of proposed amendments to the Bylaws shall be distributed by a method to be determined by the Board of Directors to the membership at least fourteen (14) calendar days prior to the meeting at which they will be considered.
